

The Olympics

Objectius

- To learn some specific content from the Social Science curriculum through English.
- To read, write and talk about The Olympics in English.
- To develop cognitive skills in a CLIL context.
- To engage students positively in a CLIL environment to benefit both from the learning of the content and the learning of the language.

Descripció de la proposta

This project is designed to be developed in 4th of ESO.
It is a CLIL Social Science project. It introduces students to the Olympic Greek world.

Aspectes didàctics i metodològics

This project is organized in five lessons:

- The Ancient Greek world
- The Olympians' origins
- Names, Appearances and Patronage
- Myths
- Tradition nowadays.

Recursos emprats

This didactic sequence contains downloadable worksheets addressed to students and ready to use materials and resources for teachers (ppt presentations, flashcards, games, videos, etc).

Competències i continguts que es treballen de forma destacada

The lesson plans of this didactic sequence have been designed taking into account the specific skills of the two subject areas involved plus some transferable competences.

Alumnat a qui s'adreça especialment

These CLIL materials are suitable for students of secondary education (ESO).

Interdisciplinarietat, transversalitat, relacions amb l'entorn...

This didactic sequence combines content from the English language curriculum and the Social Science curriculum.

Documents adjunts

The materials of this didactic sequence are structured as follows:

- Introduction to the didactic sequence with information about the context and the development of the units.
- Lesson plans: detailed information of the different units contained in the sequence with the teaching objectives, learning outcomes and assessment criteria.
- Students' worksheets: downloadable ready to use materials in pdf files.
- Teaching notes: step by step instructions to implement the didactic sequence.
- Support teaching resources: supplementary materials to support the teaching of the didactic sequence.

All these materials are accessible at:

http://www.xtec.cat/monografics/cirel/pla_le/nile/isabel_peinado/index.htm

Autoria

This material was developed by Isabel Peinado in a paid study leave of the Catalan Department of Education, run by Norwich Institute for Language Education in the 2007-2008 academic year.

